

WHAT IS ALPHA?

During the discussion, everyone is welcome to contribute their opinions and no question is considered off limits or too simple.

Questions might include:

Why am I really here?

Why do we go to church?

Where am I going?

WHAT TO EXPECT

First up there's

Food

Whether it's a group of friends gathered around a kitchen table, or a quick catch-up over coffee and cake, food has a way of bringing people together. It's no different at Alpha. We start with food, because it's a great way to encourage community and get to know each other.

Then a

Video

The talks are designed to engage and inspire conversation. They are generally thirty minutes long. They explore the big issues around faith and unpack the basics of Christianity, addressing questions such as Who is Jesus? and How can we have faith?

Followed by

Discussion

Probably the most important part of any Alpha: the chance to share thoughts and ideas on the topic, and simply discuss it in a small group. There's no obligation to say anything. And there's nothing you can't say. It's an opportunity to hear from others and contribute your own perspective in an honest, friendly and open environment.
