Half Day Marian Retreat with Fr. Chris Alar

“Mary and Divine Mercy: What We Learned at Fatima”

Saturday
JUNE 30

Following Fr. Michael Gaitely and others before him, Fr. Chris Alar serves as the director of the Association of Marian Helpers, Stockbridge, MA. Primary among his responsibilities is spreading the message of Divine Mercy.

Father Chris is considered one of the most captivating and inspiring messengers of the Divine Mercy message. He speaks to thousands of venues throughout the world.

Father Alar's life's journey in faith is unique. He received an appointment to the United States Air Force Academy right out of high school, originally training as a fighter pilot. After his medical discharge, he earned both a degree in engineering and his MBA from the University of Michigan. His experiences as a business owner, leading people and inspiring them, helped him recognize his true calling: to serve God.
